GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPETITION/EVENT & LINKS

A. Christ University's 1st Virtual National Constitutional Law PowerPoint Competition

<https://www.lawctopus.com/christ-university-constitutional-law-powerpoint-competition/>

The Constitutional Law Studies and Orientation Committee, in celebration of National Constitutional Law Day, 2020, introduces the 1st Virtual National Constitutional Law Powerpoint Competition.

➤ About the PPT Competition

The competition aims at spreading awareness and celebrating the spirit of constitutionalism, enhancing the soft skills amongst students and encouraging peer learning.

A powerpoint presentation is expected to help evaluate the understanding of concepts of Constitutional Law as well as creative elucidation of such understanding, which is likely to boost the asynchronous learning among law students.

➤ Theme

The theme for the National Constitutional Law Powerpoint Competition 2020 is the 'The Basic Structure: the unamendable values of the Indian Constitution'.

On the 71st Anniversary of Constitution of India, CLSOC seeks the participants to speculate and explore the scope of the Basic Structure of the Indian Constitution in the context of contemporary developments. School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University) is organising a PPT competition virtually (Cisco Webex) on a pan India scale to celebrate the 71st National Constitutional Law Day on 26th November 2020 (Thursday).

Aim of the National Constitutional Powerpoint Competition

The aim of the PPT Competition is to:

- To enhance the soft skills amongst students.
- To develop the art of public speaking.
- To encourage self-learning among students.
- To stimulate their thinking process and sensitize them towards contemporary issues in constitutional law and applicability of basic structure doctrine.
- To enable the participants to organize their thoughts and present them in a systematic manner.
- To promote asynchronous learning amidst the global pandemic and familiarize participants with information technology and use these tools effectively in the self-learning process.

➤ Rules of the Competition

- There is no entry fee for the contest.
- The participants are required to submit their PowerPoint presentations that contain a maximum of 15 slides.
- The participants should make title headlines. (Optional)
- The content of the PPT should not be copied. Any plagiarism, if detected, will lead to disqualification.
- The PPT must in no manner indicate or reveal the identity of the participant/ institute of affiliation.

- The participants are required to give an undertaking that their work is original. If it is found that the work is not original the entry may be cancelled. Students are advised to give proper references/due credit to the author whether of a book/internet source for any thought, idea or phrases that may have been copied from such work.

➤ Phases of the Competition

The competition will consist of two rounds:

The Screening Round: Round 1 would be the submission of PPT through Google Form. In the screening round the presentations will be peer-reviewed by the members of CLSOC. A total of five presentations will be shortlisted for the Final Round.

The Final Round: Round 2 would be the presentation of PPT on Webex Platform. The Five presentations that qualify for the final round would be intimated in advance of their qualifying for the final round. These entries shall be awarded and required to present the PPT on 26th November 2020.

➤ Presentation

- The maximum presentation time allotted to each participant is 10 minutes + 2 minutes for Q&A session.
- The presentations shall be compatible with Microsoft Office; therefore IOS presentations must be converted beforehand.
- The last date for submission of PPT is 22nd November 2020.
- The evaluation results will be declared and the entries qualifying to Round 2 shall be intimated on registered email ids.
- A certificate of participation shall be issued to all participants.
Submission of PPT through Google forms: Register and Submit here.

➤ Judgment Criteria
